Endorse the 2009 Housing Opportunity Agenda

In 2009, the Housing Alliance will call on the Legislature to dedicate new sources of funds to meet critical housing needs.

We need affordable homes for hardworking families and our neighbors on fixed incomes

Increase the Document Recording Fee—House Bill 2436. A modest increase to the existing state fee of $15 per document will create an ongoing, dedicated source of revenue Estimated $19.6 million in 2009-2011

Devote Lottery proceeds to fund housing programs that support a vital economy — preserve existing subsidized rental housing and manufactured home parks $19.4 million is needed in 2009-2011

Allocate General Fund to meet critical community needs Prevent Homelessness, Hunger, Foreclosures, and preserve stable communities. Allocate funds strategically to maximize impact of any federal investments.

Increase the cap on the Oregon Affordable Housing Tax Credit — SB 199 — this will have little to no fiscal impact in 2009-2011, but will allow planning for future development
